

- Established metrics to determine program effectiveness and make modifications to achieve goals.

1989—1996                      Los Alamos National Laboratory      Los Alamos, NM

Team Leader, Science Education Outreach

- Developed successful science education programs—supported with current Laboratory funding (TOPS, Critical Issues Forum).
- Expanded education programs using Laboratory scientific and technical staff.
- Managed team of education coordinators implementing 10 science education programs for students, educators, and Laboratory staff.

1972—1989                      Pojoaque Valley Schools                      Santa Fe, NM

Science Chair, Chemistry and Physics

- Chemistry and Physics Instructor—High School
- Chaired Science Department and coordinated curriculum with middle school
- Sponsored local, regional, state, and international science fair events and students

Education

1971–1973                      University of New Mexico                      Albuquerque, NM

- B.S., Chemistry
- Graduated with Honors (3.6 GPA)

1961-1964                      DePauw University                      Greencastle, IN

- Philosophy, Major Course of Study
- Fine Arts, Minor
- Completed seven semesters.

Additional coursework:

- 45 hours graduate coursework in education, program evaluation, environmental studies, and educational technology.

Major accomplishments

- Over 30 years experience in education including classroom instruction, program design and development, evaluation, research, and educational leadership.
- Developed successful partnerships and collaborations to improve learning and advance education policy.
- Successfully led multiple teams and groups to achieve program goals.
- Secured state and federal funding to improve education K-20.

References

Dr. Steven A. Sanchez, Former Supervisor
Public Education Department (retired)
Phone: 505 463-4031 (cell)

Dr. Carmen Gonzales, Former Supervisor
New Mexico State University
Phone: 505 646-1650

Judith Kaye, Former Supervisor
Los Alamos National Laboratory
Phone: 505 667-5061